"Fighting Bob" Says War Must Come.
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Sept. 19.—"War must come, but keep it away as long as you can. If you give us battle-ships enough I assure you that we will keep the peace, if we have to fight for it."

"Fighting Bob" Evans made this statement today at the unveiling of a monument to the One Hundred and Fifty-sixth New York volunteers regiment at Highland, opposite this city. Rear Admiral Evans also came out as an advocate of higher pensions for civil war veterans.

"Be good to those old men who fought in the great war that our Union might be saved," he said. "Don't give them any more $12 a month bounties. If you are going to starve the men who all but gave up their lives for you, it would be better to do it at once and not prolong the process day by day and year by year as you have been doing."

"It is the fashion now for certain men to call you murderers and robbers, but it is a wicked slander. You are the same boys in blue that were back in '61. The boys in blue are the same gallant, clean, hard hitters in every war. I saw them in the civil war, in the picnic in Cuba and in the Philippines, and I say to you that there are no better men than those in the blue coats. They are in the navy, too, and I just took a lot of them through the Straits of Magellan."

HEARST IS CALLED

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 20.—Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma tonight gave out the following letter, which he said he had wired to Mr. Hearst:

W. R. Hearst, Care New York American, New York: Dear Sir.—You are stating in speech and press in substance that during the year 1899, when Attorney General Frank S. Monnett of Ohio had several cases pending in the supreme court of that state against the Standard Oil Company, that I sought to influence him to dismiss those suits. I have said, and now repeat, that your statement is absolutely false, and that I never had any relations of any kind of character with the Standard Oil Company. Our conflicting statements prove nothing. You, as a newspaper man, may and should desire a reputation for truthfulness. I, a public official, demand that those who accuse stand forth and make their proof. You know that a suit against you for civil damages or criminal prosecution for libel means long delay and affords your character of journalism a chance to cover your expense before being called upon to settle. I do not want your money. I simply desire to expose you to the public as a false accuser who has distorted public record and manufactured statements for base political purposes.

For the purpose of forever settling this infamous slander which you are circulating in your newspapers and on the stump, I now propose that a committee of five, or any three of them, composed of the editors of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, the Chicago Journal, the New York World, the Indianapolis News and the St. Louis Republic, be selected to hear you and me under oath, and all other evidence they may desire, as to the truth or falsity of your charges, at the earliest possible moment, and render their decision to the public in writing.

Should this committee find your charge sustained, I shall withdraw from all connection with the present campaign. Should the verdict be against you, there need be no other penalty than the public contempt due every assassin of character.

shot hitting the sheriff, who fell from his horse mortally wounded. His fall discouraged the members of the posse for a few minutes, and while they carried the dying official to the edge of the woods, the Robertses barricaded the door of the cabin.

Roberts and his wife then took up positions at the windows and stood off the besiegers four hours until both were riddled with bullets.

Three of the posse were wounded

FATAL TRAIN WRECK

Texarkana, Tex., Sept. 20.—A north-bound freight train on the Kansas City Southern was wrecked near De Queen, Ark. Six cars rolled down a steep embankment, including three tank cars loaded with oil, and were badly smashed. One brakeman and two unidentified men were killed. The tracks were badly torn up, causing a delay of all traffic for several hours.

The bodies of one of the men showed nothing to indicate his identity. It was recovered this morning, while the body of the other lies somewhere beneath four wrecked box cars. The two men were in a box car.

The wreck is attributed to spreading of the rails, the engine and half the train passing safely over the defective track before the wheels of a box car found the opening and went into the ditch, dragging eight other cars, three of which were filled with oil, which burst.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

Two Boys Victims of Collision With Automobile.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 20.—Carlton McConnell, aged 8 years, son of R. N. McConnell, was killed outright and George Stone, aged 12, son, of G. B. Stone, president of the chamber of commerce, was injured so badly that it is feared he will die.

The boys were coasting on a bicycle and while rounding a corner at a good rate of speed collided with an automobile driven by William Harrah. Young Stone is in a hospital and has been unconscious since the accident.

WOMAN GIVES LIFE

West Palms, Mo., Sept. 20.—Four persons are dead or dying and three are injured as the result of a desperate battle in the Ozarks near Prestonia, one mile south of the Missouri State line today, between a sheriff's posse and John Roberts, a mountaineer and his wife. The sheriff met death at the hands of Mrs. Roberts, who defended her husband and her home to the last and when, after four hours of fighting, the posse stormed and carried the house, she was found lying under a window, a pump gun clamped in her stiffening fingers, blood oozing from fourteen wounds.

The affair is the outcome of a feud between Roberts and his neighbor, Kessinger, of almost a year's standing. Both lived in the heart of the Ozarks, and like true mountaineers, they shunned the courts of justice to settle their difficulties, recognizing the right of might only.

Last night Roberts rode over to Kessinger's cabin and halloed to him to come outside. Kessinger opened the door cautiously and peered out and Roberts fired, the bullet hitting Kessinger squarely in the forehead.

Mrs. Kessinger was in the kitchen when Roberts rode up to the cabin, and hearing some one call her husband, stepped into the room just as he threw open the door. She saw the gleam of Robert's rifle barrel as he raised it to his shoulder to fire, and screamed to her husband to close the door. The report of the gun cut short her warning, but by the flash was able to distinguish Roberts' features.

Sheriff Mooney organized a posse of six deputies and started for the Roberts cabin early this morning, arriving in sight of the place shortly before noon. As they approached Mrs. Roberts opened fire, her first Standard Oil connection is certainly a deadener to public men. Senator Foraker is the latest victim, but is not likely to be the last.

The national campaign is becoming considerably warmer and until the election there is likely to be plenty of ginger to please the most rabid partisan.

The republicans are considerably befuddled. They are getting hit from so many quarters and in so many places that they cannot meet the attack. It bids fair to end in a stampede for the old party of pilfer, extravagance and favoritism.

The weather for the past week has not been so favorable for cotton and has delayed the opening some, but the rush will soon be here. It is not too late for Ada merchants to take some concerted action toward drawing cotton to this point. Ada already has many advantages, including compress, cotton seed oil mill, numerous buyers and merchants with large stocks of goods which they offer cheap.

If the democrats can avoid any serious political errors, as they have so far been able to do, and keep the harmonious feeling intact, as well as confine the discussion and the issues of the campaign to the record of the republican party and its candidate for president, the election of Bryan appears most probable.

The way the price of hogs is climbing it certainly behooves every farmer to have enough on the farm to insure his own meat supply. There is no telling where the price of bacon and hams will go to.—Denison Herald.

There is no excuse for farmers in this section having to buy meat. Hogs do well here without much care. It is within the power of the farmers to regulate the price of their own meat—by raising it.

PRESS COMMENT.

No man who acquired wealth honestly chides his fellow mortals on account of poverty—it is the thief, the braggart, the financial glutton that emits such mud and slime; and it can come only from the cess pools of corruption—a damnable, hardened heart.—Sallisaw Star-Gazette.

One of the most gratifying features of the change in farm methods is the fact that there are fewer farm mortgages each year and a like number of farmers on a cash basis. The man who has to borrow money to make a crop is playing an uphill game and it is hard work getting ahead.—Shawnee News.

The Maine election showed a democratic increase of 30 per cent, while it showed a republican decrease of six per cent. Straws show which way the national election is going, and the republicans are worried more than they have been for years. It shows that the people will not be fooled all the time.—Caddo Herald.

Wowoka claims to have the stingiest man in Oklahoma, if not in the world, and a premium is offered for his superior in closefistedness. He got married to a home girl to save expenses. They walked down to the oil well for a bridal tour. He bought her a nickel's worth of stick candy for a wedding present, and then suggested that they save the candy for the children.—Konawa Chief Leader.

The most powerful leverage for better roads that has yet been brought to bear is the threat that free rural delivery will be discontinued by the government unless the roads over which the routes run are made passable the year round. This is putting the proposition right squarely up to the very people who are vitally interested and the Herald is going to be very much mistaken if it does not bring results that are worth while.—Denison Herald.

Graceful Dances By Huge Circus Elephants.

Fancy dances of a character that would make even an expert in terpsichere hesitate before attempting them are done daily in the Sells-Floto shows by a huge beast ten feet high and nearly nine feet thick.

The best of it is that they are done with more or less grace and with exact precision in the rhythm of the music. Waltz steps, two steps, schottiche, and fancy dances which as yet have been given no name—although one of them might appropriately be called the "barn dance"—are executed with the greatest ease by Alice, the wonderful acrobatic elephant of Carl Zeitz's band of performing elephants.

Alice also does a very lady-like stunt at each performance. She stands on her head. Then, too, she does other stunts while her fellows are cutting up all kinds and varieties of capers.

These wise old beasts, generally with any show, will be here with the Sells-Floto shows and menagerie on Wednesday, September 23.

NO HARD STRUGGLE.

Many An Ada Citizen Finds the Struggle Hard.

With a back constantly aching. With distressing urinary disorders. Daily existence is but a struggle. No need to keep it up.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. Ada people endorse this claim:

Mrs. Chas. Barrier, living on West 7th and Cherry Sts., Ada, Ok., says:

"For a long time my husband was troubled with severe pains through the small of his back. Occasionally he had such sharp twinges that he could hardly refrain from crying out. Bending and straightening would always intensify his suffering. The kidney secretions were also irregular in action. These symptoms led him to believe that his kidneys were disordered and learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, he procured a box at G. M. Ramsey's drug store. He took them according to directions, and the trouble entirely disappeared. He has had no return of kidney complaint since, and consequently thinks very highly of Doan's Kidney Pills."

How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong: He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the disease portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Positively, not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more strength, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

Delightfully Entertained.

The following mention of entertainments in Ardmore, wherein Ada lady was the recipient of such complimentary consideration, is copied from the Morning Democrat of that city:

One of the prettiest and most enjoyable receptions of the season was tendered Mrs. Fiske of Ada on Thursday evening by her hostess, Mrs. C. W. Bigart, at her residence on North D. street.

Mrs. Bigart's house was fragrant with summer flowers, ferns, palms and cut flowers were elaborately used in putting the reception suite in gala attire.

The receiving line stood in the parlor and the guests were invited to meet Mrs. Fiske, Mrs. Bigart, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. E. M. Galt.

Miss Miriam Fiske invited to the punch bowl, where from a rose bedecked bower Miss Helen Galt served this refreshing drink.

In the dining room a delightful two-course luncheon was served.

The guests were entertained throughout the evening with progressive forty-two.

The entertainment closed with a watermelon feast upon the moonlit lawn and will be remembered by all who attended as one of the most delightful evenings of the entire summer.

The dainty guest book which Mrs. Fiske will carry to Ada as a souvenir of a very happy evening and a delightful visit contains something over fifty names of friends who will welcome her future visits to Ardmore.

In the house party were Mrs. C. L. Herron, who had the guests' register in charge; Mrs. Anderson, Mrs.

Galt, Mrs. Fiske, Mrs. Bigart, and Misses Helen Galt and Miriam Fiske.

Picnic Party.

Mrs. E. M. Galt honored Mrs. Fiske of Ada, the guest of Mrs. C. W. Bigart with a picnic party to the lake on Saturday evening.

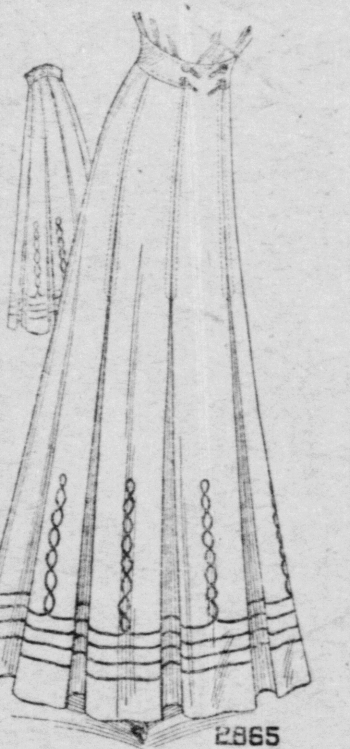

A delightful hour passed socially and a genuine picnic dinner was the Ozarks, and like true mountain-ford, Luke Johnson, Foster, T. B. Robinson, Anderson, Steakley, Flaw, Sam Noble and Fiske; Misses Foster, Katie Johnson, Hattie and Freda Brunard, Ethel Crosby, Helen and Lois Goff and Marion Fiske.

George Washington and Stonewall Jackson.

Bob Nestor, deputy under Sheriff Smith, had a warrant for one Stonewall Jackson, charged with stealing a saw from an Indian. Bob searched diligently for his man, who is a negro, and finally ran across a distinguished looking negro who very correctly filled the proper description of the negro in question. Bob arrested him and started to the sheriff's office. The negro half scared to death, began muttering to Bob that he had the wrong man, claiming that his name was George Washington. Bob can't hear very well, and besides he is accustomed to prisoners making excuses, and feeling convinced that he had the correct man on account the description he possessed, and the added fact that his name was prominent, he would not listen to the prisoner's plea. When Bob arrived at the J. P. office, it was found that he had arrested George Washington instead of Stonewall Jackson, and what made it all the more interesting, George Washington was the fellow who had made the complaint against Stonewall Jackson. They gave Bob the horse laugh, and at last accounts, Bob was still looking for Stonewall Jackson.

I am assured by the Oklahoma Book Company that by next week they will have pretty nearly a complete line in my hands of the books adopted by the state.

The bell will soon be summoning the youngsters back to school. The beginning of school always means a decided added expense for the children's outfitting. We intend to maintain the reputation of this store as headquarters for school books and school supplies. Tablets, perforated and stapled.

IS DOWN AND OUT

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 19.—Senator J. B. Foraker of Ohio is politically dead and buried. He has been forsaken by the Ohio State committee, and, seemingly, also by Taft headquarters at Cincinnati. With the means at hand to substantiate the Senator's explanation of the $50,000 sent to him by John Archbold of the Standard Oil company, the State committee has made no effort to do so and permitted Col. J. D. Ellison, who knew about the deal, to go away without asking an explanation at the headquarters. It is doubtful now if Foraker will be permitted to participate in the Ohio campaign at all, despite the fact that Chairman Henry Williams a week ago sent special emissaries with special invitations to the senator and the invitations were accepted. All day Saturday members of the State committee and officials were scouting to find the sentiment of republicans as to Foraker, the general sentiment seeming to be that the expose of the senator would hurt no one but himself if carefully handled.

At Cincinnati too, Taft headquarters is doing some thinking. It is known that State headquarters called up A. I. Vorys, chief of staff, and informed him of two requests for speeches by Senator Foraker, several days ago. Mr. Vorys replied that Senator Foraker's services were "unavailable."

Senator Foraker tonight sent out following self-explanatory messages:

"Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 19.—Hon. John Hays Hammond, President National League of Republican Clubs, Hotel Sinton, Cincinnati, Ohio: Dear Sir—I herewith inclose a self-explanatory letter that I have just sent to Judge Taft. Very truly yours, J. B. FORAKER."

"Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 19.—My Dear Judge: Having read the newspapers that some of our friends, and possibly you, are in doubt as to the propriety of my speaking with you at Music Hall next Tuesday night, I have concluded not to attend the meeting. I take this action, not because I deem the answers I have made to Mr. Hearst's charges insufficient, nor because of any lack of loyalty to your cause, but only because I do not wish to do anything that might injure the cause or embarrass you personally. Very truly yours, etc. J. B. FORAKER."

"Hon. William H. Taft, Cincinnati, Ohio."

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 20.—United States Senator Joseph Br. Foraker has canceled all of his speaking engagements in the campaign. In a letter to Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock, he asked to be relieved from the appointments which had been arranged for him by the National Speakers' Bureau, and, in a communication to State Chairman Williams of Ohio Republican committee, he made the same request as to the engagements which had been arranged for him in this state.

As to Senator Foraker's senatorial candidacy, the Associated Press is authorized to state the senator's position as follows:

Senator Foraker will leave the selection of his successor to the legislature, but will do all in his power to see that a republican legislature is elected.

In addition to the information Senator Foraker today told his friends that he should, at the proper and convenient opportunity, make a speech in answer to the Hearst charges and in defense of himself, and then would campaign the entire state in behalf of his senatorial candidacy, but under the jurisdiction of no political campaign.

Interesting details of just how Senator Foraker came to withdraw from participation in the forthcoming convention of the National League of Republican Clubs, at which he was to speak with Judge Taft here on Tuesday evening, were disclosed today authoritatively. On the morning of the first publication of the Hearst disclosures (Friday) Senator Dick came to the city from Columbus. After a conference with Senator Foraker where he had an interview with the senator, he went to the Taft residence, candidate at which the situation was discussed frankly.

No conclusions were reached but Senator Dick obtained the distinct impression that, in view of the disclosures, the joint discussion of Foraker and Taft was one which required considerations. The arrival of Senator Crane on Saturday morning was noted, and the junior Ohio senator indicated that he should take up the matter with his Massachusetts colleague. After Senators Crane, Foraker and Dick had conferred Saturday morning, the letter which Senator Foraker made public last night, in which he eliminated himself from the meeting, was taken to the Pike street residence by Senator Crane. The suggestion was made after further consideration that the letter personally should be addressed to John Hays Hammond, president of the National League of Republican Clubs, under whose jurisdiction the meeting in question was being arranged, for the reason that as the candidate had no control over the arrangements, further correspondence would be necessary. Then followed another conference between the three senators, during which the question of forwarding the letter to Mr. Hammond was decided, which it was explained, obviated the necessity of a reply from Mr. Taft. This plan, after being presented to Judge Taft at another conference, was adopted.

Throughout the negotiations Judge Taft refused absolutely to comment for publication on the meeting. It has since developed that he had at once taken the position that the joint engagement must be canceled. It has also developed that the candidate received insistent advice to take the initiative in the matter of canceling the arrangements, and that his reply was emphatically in this language:

"If it would win me every vote in the United States, I can not hit a man when he is down."

FRENZIED NEGRO KILLS TWO

Alexandria, La., Sept. 19.—A mania for killing took possession of Edward Ailes, a negro prisoner, when his death warrant for the murder of his wife, was read to him in jail this evening.

He grabbed a caseknife and slew two other prisoners and severely wounded four, all negroes. One of the wounded may die.

During the reading of the warrant Ailes was quiet and smiling, but when the officers left his presence he became furious. The screams of the wounded and dying prisoners attracted almost one thousand persons to the vicinity of the jail.

Meanwhile jail officers played a fire hose on Ailes, the cold water finally bringing him back to reason. The dead are Tip Davis and Garfield Bradley.

$5,000,000 Cut On Muskogee County Valuation.

Muskogee, Sept. 20.—County Clerk W. E. Looper was officially notified by the state board of equalization at Guthrie this afternoon of a decrease made by the state board of equalization in the taxable valuation of property in Muskogee county amounting to approximately $5,000,000. That is to say the total valuation has been decreased from approximately 22,000,000 to $16,893,704. The reduction is general on all the items of taxable property and ranges from 1 to 62 per cent. The action of the state board will necessitate a higher rate of taxation than anticipated, but will not increase the amount to be paid by property holders.

DEVELOPMENT OF CHARACTER THE MOST EXALTED BLESSING.

The advocates of the Christian college regard a perfectly developed moral character as the most exalted blessing within the reach of man. Great as is the value of the acquisition of a liberal intellectual education, it is quite subordinate in its worth to the symmetrical moral character. Hence the teacher in the Christian school preceeds upon the idea that to educate a young man, or a young woman, is to enable such an one to fulfill his or her life plan, and to realize its destiny. In the Christian college there are regarded as being two co-equal elements in true human education—discipline and instruction. In the drill of mind and character they mutually aid and supplement each other. Hence Christianity set out to overload neither; on the other hand, it seeks to give great prominence to both.—Dr. B. F. Riley, on "Denominational Education."

God's blessed permission to us to see him, and to know him, and to trust in him—that is granted us, not for the hours of death or agony alone, but for all life, almost from the very cradle quite to the very grave. And it is a gift no less priceless for its alleviation of all innocent joy. For him who would live a true life it is as necessary in prosperity as in adversity, in peace as in trouble, in youth as in old age. * * Prayer is to the soul what the dew fall even now is, and always, for all of us, upon the fields of life.—Friedrick W. Farrar.

THE BETTER WAY.

(By W. C. Martin.)

To wring the hands and beat the breast,

And weep the eyes half blind,
Do not so much deep grief attest
As smallness of the mind.

The noble soul will not display
To men his open sores,
Nor on his fellow mortals lay
The burdens he deplores.

His tears are shed in private, when
He turns aside to pray;
God sanctifies his grief, and then
Wipes all his tears away.

"Fighting Bob" Says War Must Come.
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Sept. 19.—"War must come, but keep it away as long as you can. If you give us battle-ships enough I assure you that we will keep the peace, if we have to fight for it."

"Fighting Bob" Evans made this statement today at the unveiling of a monument to the One Hundred and Fifty-sixth New York volunteers regiment at Highland opposite this city. Rear Admiral Evans also came out as an advocate of higher pensions for civil war veterans.

Be good to those old men who fought in the great war that our Union might be saved," he said. "Don't give them any more $12 a month bounties. If you are going to starve the men who all but gave up their lives for you, it would be better to do it at once and not prolong the process day by day and year by year as you have been doing."

It is the fashion now for certain men to call you murderers and robbers but it is a wicked slander. You are the same boys in blue that you were back in 61. The boys in blue are the same gallant, clean, hard hitters in every war I saw them in the civil war, in the picnic in Cuba and in the Philippines, and I say to you that there are no better men than those in the blue coats. They are in the navy, too, and I just took a lot of them through the Straits of Magellan.

HEARST IS CALLED

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 20.—Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma tonight gave out the following letter, which he said he had wired to Mr. Hearst:

W. R. Hearst Care New York American, New York Dear Sir—You are stating in speech and press in substance that during the year 1899, when Attorney General Frank S. Monnett of Ohio had several cases pending in the supreme court of that state against the Standard Oil Company, that I sought to influence him to dismiss those suits. I have said, and now repeat, that your statement is absolutely false, and that I never had any relations of any kind of character with the Standard Oil Company. Our conflicting statements prove nothing. You, as a newspaper man, may and should desire a reputation for truthfulness. I, a public official, demand that those who accuse stand forth and make their proof. You know that a suit against you for civil damages or criminal prosecution for libel means long delay and affords your character of journalism a chance to cover your expense before being called upon to settle. I do not want your money. I simply desire to expose you to the public as a false accuser who has distorted public record and manufactured statements for base political purposes.

For the purpose of forever settling this infamous slander which you are circulating in your newspapers and on the stump I now propose that a committee of five or any three of them, composed of the editors of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, the Chicago Journal, the New York World, the Indianapolis News and the St. Louis Republic be selected to hear you and me under oath and all other evidence they may desire as to the truth or falsity of your charges, at the earliest possible moment and render their decision to the public in writing.

Should this committee find your charge sustained I shall withdraw from all connection with the present campaign. Should the verdict be against you there need be no other penalty than the public contempt due every assassin of character.

C. N. HASKELL

shot hitting the sheriff, who fell from his horse mortally wounded. His fall discouraged the members of the posse for a few minutes, and while they carried the dying official to the edge of the woods, the Robertses barricaded the door of the cabin.

Robert and his wife then took up positions at the windows and stood off the besiegers four hours until both were riddled with bullets.

Three of the posse were wounded.

FATAL TRAIN WRECK

Texarkana, Tex., Sept. 20.—A north-bound freight train on the Kansas City Southern was wrecked near De Queen, Ark. Six cars rolled down a steep embankment including three tank cars loaded with oil, and were badly smashed. One brakeman and two unidentified men were killed. The tracks were badly torn up causing a delay of all traffic for several hours.

The bodies of one of the men showed nothing to indicate his identity. It was recovered this morning while the body of the other lies somewhere beneath four wrecked box cars. The two men were in a box car.

The wreck is attributed to spreading of the rails the engine and half the train passing safely over the defective track before the wheels of a box car found the opening and went into the ditch, dragging eight other cars, three of which were filled with oil, which burst.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

Two Boys Victims of Collision With Automobile.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 20.—Carlton McConnell, aged 8 years, son of R. V. McConnell, was killed outright and George Stone, aged 12, son of G. B. Stone, president of the chamber of commerce, was injured so badly that it is feared he will die. The boys were coasting on a bicycle and while rounding a corner at a good rate of speed collided with an automobile driven by William Harrah Young Stone is in a hospital and has been unconscious since the accident.

WOMAN GIVES LIFE

West Plains, Mo., Sept. 20.—Four persons are dead or dying and three are injured as the result of a desperate battle in the Ozarks near Preston, one mile south of the Missouri State line today between a sheriff's posse and John Roberts, a mountaineer and his wife. The sheriff met death at the hands of Mrs. Roberts, who defended her husband and her home to the last and when, after four hours of fighting the posse stormed and carried the house she was found lying under a window a pump gun clamped in her stiffening fingers blood oozing from fourteen wounds.

The affair is the outcome of a feud between Roberts and his neighbor Kessinger of almost a year's standing. Both lived in the heart of the Ozarks, and like true mountaineers, they shunned the courts of justice to settle their difficulties recognizing the right of might only.

Last night Roberts rode over to Kessinger's cabin and balloed to him to come outside. Kessinger opened the door cautiously and peered out and Roberts fired, the bullet hitting Kessinger squarely in the forehead. Mrs. Kessinger was in the kitchen when Roberts rode up to the cabin, and hearing some one call her husband stepped into the room just as he threw open the door. She saw the gleam of Robert's rifle barrel as he raised it to his shoulder to fire, and screamed to her husband to close the door. The report of the gun cut short her warning but by the flash was able to distinguish Roberts' features.

Sheriff Mooney organized a posse of six deputies and started for the Roberts cabin early this morning, arriving in sight of the place shortly before noon. As they approached Mrs. Roberts opened fire, her first Standard Oil connection is certainly a deadener to public men. Senator Foraker is the latest victim but is not likely to be the last.

The national campaign is becoming considerably warmer and until the election there is likely to be plenty of ginger to please the most rabid partisan.

The republicans are considerably befuddled. They are getting hit from so many quarters and in so many places that they cannot meet the attack. It looks like to end in a stampede for the old party of pilfer, extravagance and favoritism.

The weather for the past week has not been so favorable for cotton and has delayed the opening some. But the rush will soon be on. It is not too late for Ada merchants to take some cotton to the point. Ada already has many bales of cotton in its compress. Cotton seed oil will numerous buyers and merchants with large stocks of goods which they offer cheap.

If the democrats can avoid any serious political errors as they have so far been able to do, and keep the harmonious feeling intact as well as confine the discussion and the issues of the campaign to the record of the republican party and its candidate for president the election of Bryan appears most probable.

The way the price of hogs is climbing it certainly behooves every farmer to have enough on the farm to insure his own meat supply. There is no telling where the price of bacon and hams will go to.—Denison Herald.

There is no excuse for farmers in this section having to buy meat. Hogs do well here without much care. It is within the power of the farmers to regulate the price of their own meat—by raising it.

PRESS COMMENT.

No man who acquired wealth honestly chides his fellow mortals on account of poverty—it is the thief, the braggart, the financial glutton that emits such mud and slime and it can come only from the cesspools of corruption—a damnable branded heart.—Salisbury Star-Gazette.

One of the most gratifying features of the change in farm methods is the fact that there are fewer farm mortgages each year and a like number of farms on a cash basis. The man who has to borrow money to make a crop is playing an uphill game and it is hard work a thing and.—Shawnee News.

The Mune el et on showed a demo cratic increase of 30 per cent, while it showed a republican decrease of 10 per cent. However, in the national election is going and the republicans are worried more than they have been for years. It shows that the people will not be fooled all the time.—Caddo Herald.

Wowoka claims to have the stingiest man in Oklahoma if not in the world and a premium is offered for his superior in closefistedness. He got married to a home girl to save expenses. They walked down to the oil well for a bridal tour. He bought her a nickel's worth of stick candy for a wedding present and then suggested that they save the candy for the children.—Konawa Chief Leader.

The most powerful leverage for better roads that has yet been brought to bear is the threat that free rural delivery will be discontinued by the government unless the roads over which the routes run are made passable the year round. This is putting the proposition right squarely up to the very people who are vitally interested and the Herald is going to be very much mistaken if it does not bring results that are worth while.—Denison Herald.

Graceful Dances By Huge Circus Elephants.

Fancy dances of a character that would make even an expert in terpsichore hesitate before attempting them are done daily in the Sells Floto shows by a huge beast ten feet high and nearly nine feet thick.

The best of it is that they are done with more or less grace and with exact precision in the rhythm of the music. Waltz steps two steps schottische and fancy dances which as yet have been given no name—although one of them might appropriately be called the harn dance—are executed with the greatest ease by Alice the wonderful acrobatic elephant of Carl Zeitz's band of performing elephants.

Alice also does a very lady like stunt at each performance. She stands on her head. Then too she does other stunts while her fellows are cutting up all kinds and varieties of capers.

These wise old beasts generally with any show will be here with the Sells Floto shows and menagerie on Wednesday September 23.

NO HARD STRUGGLE.

Many An Ada Citizen Finds the Struggle Hard.

With a back constantly aching, with distressing urinary disorders, daily existence is but a struggle. No need to keep it up. Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. Ada people endorse this claim. Mrs. Chas. Barrier, living on West 7th and Cherry Sts., Ada, Ok., says: 'For a long time my husband was troubled with severe pains through the small of his back. Occasionally he had such sharp twinges that he could hardly refrain from crying out. Bending and straightening would always intensify his suffering. The kidney secretions were also irregular in action. These symptoms led him to believe that his kidneys were disordered and learning of Doan's Kidney Pills he procured a box at G. M. Ramsey's drug store. He took them according to directions, and the trouble entirely disappeared. He has had no return of kidney complaint since and consequently thinks very highly of Doan's Kidney Pills.' For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Viburnum Co., Buffalo, N. How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong. He says: 'My mother who is old and was very feeble is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters that I feel it my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger.' Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Heart Strength

Heart strength or Heart Weakness, means Nerve strength or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. People do not realize that a weak heart is in itself actually diseased. It is almost always hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves. This clearly explains why as a medicine Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful palpitation, fluttering heart disease. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds it strengthens it offers real genuine heart help if you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed with

Delightfully Entertained.

The following mention of entertainments in Ardmore, wherein Ada lady was the recipient of such complimentary consideration, is copied from the Morning Democrat of that city:

One of the prettiest and most enjoyable receptions of the season was tendered Mrs. Fiske of Ada on Thursday evening by her hostess, Mrs. C. W. Bigart, at her residence on North D. street.

Mrs. Bigart's house was fragrant with summer flowers, ferns, palms and cut flowers were elaborately used in putting the reception suite in gala attire.

The receiving line stood in the parlor and the guests were invited to meet Mrs. Fiske, Mrs. Bigart, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. E. M. Galt.

Miss Miriam Fiske invited to the punch bowl, where from a rose bedecked bower Miss Helen Galt served this refreshing drink.

In the dining room a delightful two-course luncheon was served.

The guests were entertained throughout the evening with progressive forty-two.

The entertainment closed with a watermelon feast upon the moonlit lawn and will be remembered by all who attended as one of the most delightful evenings of the entire summer.

The dainty guest book which Mrs. Fiske will carry to Ada as a souvenir of a very happy evening and a delightful visit contains something over fifty names of friends who will welcome her future visits to Ardmore.

In the house party were Mrs. C. L. Herron, who had the guests' register in charge; Mrs. Anderson, Mrs.

Galt, Mrs. Fiske, Mrs. Bigart, and Misses Helen Galt and Miriam Fiske.

Picnic Party.

Mrs. E. M. Galt honored Mrs. Fiske of Ada, the guest of Mrs. C. W. Bigart with a picnic party to the lake on Saturday evening.

A delightful hour passed socially and a genuine picnic dinner was the Ozarks, and like true mountaineers, Luke Johnson, Foster, T. B. Robinson, Anderson, Steakley, Flaw, Sam Noble and Fiske; Misses Foster, Katie Johnson, Hattie and Freda Brunard, Ethel Crosby, Helen and Lois Goff and Marion Fiske.

George Washington and Stonewall Jackson.

Bob Nestor, deputy under Sheriff Smith, had a warrant for one Stonewall Jackson, charged with stealing a saw from an Indian. Bob searched diligently for his man, who is a negro, and finally ran across a distinguished looking negro who very correctly filled the proper description of the negro in question. Bob arrested him and started to the sheriff's office.

The negro half scared to death, began muttering to Bob that he had the wrong man, claiming that his name was George Washington. Bob can't hear very well, and besides he is accustomed to prisoners making excuses, and feeling convinced that he had the correct man on account of the description he possessed, and the added fact that his name was prominent, he would not listen to the prisoner's plea. When Bob arrived at the J. P. office, it was found that he had arrested George Washington instead of Stonewall Jackson, and what made it all the more interesting, George Washington was the fellow who had made the complaint against Stonewall Jackson. They gave Bob the horse laugh, and at last accounts, Bob was still looking for Stonewall Jackson.

IS DOWN AND OUT

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 19.—Senator J. B. Foraker of Ohio is politically dead and buried. He has been forsaken by the Ohio State committee, and, seemingly, also by Taft headquarters at Cincinnati. With the means at hand to substantiate the Senator's explanation of the $50,000 sent to him by John Archbold of the Standard Oil company, the State committee has made no effort to do so and permitted Col. J. D. Ellison, who knew about the deal, to go away without asking an explanation at the headquarters. It is doubtful now if Foraker will be permitted to participate in the Ohio campaign at all, despite the fact that Chairman Henry Williams a week ago sent special emissaries with special invitations to the senator and the invitations were accepted. All day Saturday members of the State committee and officials were scouting to find the sentiment of republicans as to Foraker, the general sentiment seeming to be that the exposure of the senator would hurt no one but himself if carefully handled.

At Cincinnati too, Taft headquarters is doing some thinking. It is known that State headquarters called up A. I. Vorys, chief of staff, and informed him of two requests for speeches by Senator Foraker, several days ago. Mr. Vorys replied that Senator Foraker's services were "unavailable."

Senator Foraker tonight sent out following self-explanatory messages: "Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 19.—Hon. John Hays Hammond, President National League of Republican Clubs, Hotel Clinton, Cincinnati, Ohio: Dear Sir—I herewith inclose a self-explanatory letter that I have just sent to Judge Taft. Very truly yours, J. B. FORAKER"

"Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 19.—My Dear Judge: Having read the newspapers that some of our friends, and possibly you, are in doubt as to the propriety of my speaking with you at Music Hall next Tuesday night, I have concluded not to attend the meeting. I take this action, not because I deem the answers I have made to Mr. Hearst's charges insufficient, nor because of any lack of loyalty to your cause, but only because I do not wish to do anything that might injure the cause or embarrass you personally. Very truly yours, J. B. FORAKER.

"Hon. William H. Taft, Cincinnati, Ohio."

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 20.—United States Senator Joseph B. Foraker has canceled all of his speaking engagements in the campaign. In a letter to Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock, he asked to be relieved from the appointments which had been arranged for him by the National Speakers' Bureau, and, in a communication to State Chairman Williams of Ohio Republican committee, he made the same request as to the engagements which had been arranged for him in this state.

As to Senator Foraker's senatorial candidacy, the Associated Press is authorized to state the senator's position as follows:

Senator Foraker will leave the selection of his successor to the legislature, but will do all in his power to see that a republican legislature is elected.

In addition to the information Senator Foraker today told his friends that he should, at the proper and convenient opportunity, make a speech in answer to the Hearst charges and in defense of himself, and then would campaign the entire state in behalf of his senatorial candidacy, but under the jurisdiction of no political campaign.

Interesting details of just how Senator Foraker came to withdraw from participation in the forthcoming convention of the National League of Republican Clubs, at which he was to speak with Judge Taft here on Tuesday evening, were disclosed today authoritatively. On the morning of the first publication of the Hearst disclosures (Friday) Senator Dick came to the city from Columbus. After a conference with Senator Foraker he had an interview with the aker he went to the Taft residence, candidate at which the situation was discussed frankly.

No conclusions were reached but Senator Dick obtained the distinct impression that, in view of the disclosures, the joint discussion of Foraker and Taft was one which required considerations. The arrival of Senator Crane on Saturday morning was noted, and the junior Ohio senator indicated that he should take up the matter with his Massachusetts colleague. After Senators Crane Foraker and Dick had conferred Saturday morning, the letter which Senator Foraker made public last night, in which he eliminated himself from the meeting, was taken to the Pike street residence by Senator Crane. The suggestion was made after further consideration that the letter personally should be addressed to John Hays Hammond, president of the National League of Republican Clubs, under whose jurisdiction the meeting in question was being arranged, for the reason that as the candidate had no control over the arrangements, further correspondence would be necessary. Then followed another conference between the three senators, during which the question of forwarding the letter to Mr. Hammond was decided, which it was explained, obviated the necessity of a reply from Mr. Taft. This plan, after being presented to Judge Taft at another conference, was adopted.

Throughout the negotiations Judge Taft refused absolutely to comment for publication on the meeting. It has since developed that he had at once taken the position that the joint engagement must be canceled. It has also developed that the candidate received insistent advice to take the initiative in the matter of canceling the arrangements, and that his reply was emphatically in this language:

"If it would win me every vote in the United States, I can not hit a man when he is down."

FRENZIED NEGRO KILLS TWO

Alexandria, La., Sept. 19.—A mania for killing took possession of Edward Ailes, a negro prisoner, when his death warrant for the murder of his wife, was read to him in jail this evening.

He grabbed a caseknife and slew two other prisoners and severely wounded four, all negroes. One of the wounded may die.

During the reading of the warrant Ailes was quiet and smiling, but when the officers left his presence he became furious. The screams of the wounded and dying prisoners attracted almost one thousand persons to the vicinity of the jail.

Meanwhile jail officers played a fire hose on Ailes, the cold water finally bringing him back to reason. The dead are Tip Davis and Garfield Bradley.

$5,000,000 Cut On Muskogee County Valuation.
Muskogee, Sept. 20.—County Clerk W. E. Looper was officially notified by the state board of equalization at Guthrie this afternoon of a decrease made by the state board of equalization in the taxable valuation of property in Muskogee county amounting to approximately $5,000,000. That is to say the total valuation has been decreased from approximately 22,000,000 to $16,993,704. The reduction is general on all the items of taxable property and ranges from 1 to 62 per cent. The action of the state board will necessitate a higher rate of taxation than anticipated, but will not increase the amount to be paid by property holders.

DEVELOPMENT OF CHARACTER THE MOST EXALTED BLESSING.

The advocates of the Christian college regard a perfectly developed moral character as the most exalted blessing within the reach of man. Great as is the value of the acquisition of a liberal intellectual education, it is quite subordinate in its worth to the symmetrical moral character. Hence the teacher in the Christian school preceeds upon the idea that to educate a young man, or a young woman, is to enable such an one to fulfill his or her life plan, and to realize its destiny. In the Christian college there are regarded as being two co-equal elements in true human education—discipline and instruction. In the drill of mind and character they mutually aid and supplement each other. Hence Christianity set out to overload neither; on the other hand, it seeks to give great prominence to both.—Dr. B. F. Riley, on "Denominational Education."

God's blessed permission to us to see him, and to know him, and to trust in him—that is granted us, not for the hours of death or agony alone, but for all life, almost from the very cradle quite to the very grave. And it is a gift no less priceless for its alleviation of all innocent joy. For him who would live a true life it is as necessary in prosperity as in adversity, in peace as in trouble, in youth as in old age. * * * Prayer is to the soul what the dew fall even now is, and always, for all of us, upon the fields of life.—Friederick W. Farrar.

THE BETTER WAY.

(By W. C. Martin)

To wring the hands and beat the breast,
And weep the eyes half blind,
Do not so much deep grief attest
As smallness of the mind.

The noble soul will not display
To men his open sores,
Nor on his fellow mortals lay
The burdens he deplores.

His tears are shed in private, when
He turns aside to pray;
God sanctifies his grief, and then
Wipes all his tears away.

"Fighting Bob" Says War Must Come.
Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Sept. 19.—"War must come, but keep it away as long as you can. If you give us battle-ships enough I assure you that we will keep the peace, if we have to fight for it."

"Fighting Bob" Evans made this statement today at the unveiling of a monument to the One Hundred and Fifty-sixth New York volunteers regiment at Highland opposite this city. Rear Admiral Evans also came out as an advocate of higher pensions for civil war veterans.

Be good to those old men who fought in the great war that our Union might be saved," he said. "Don't give them any more $12 a month bounties. If you are going to starve the men who all but gave up their lives for you, it would be better to do it at once and not prolong the process day by day and year by year as you have been doing.

It is the fashion now for certain men to call you murderers and robbers but it is a wicked slander. You are the same boys in blue that you were back in '61. The boys in blue are the same gallant, clean, hard hitters in every war I saw them in the civil war, in the picnic in Cuba and in the Philippines, and I say to you that there are no better men than those in the blue coats. They are in the navy, too, and I just took a lot of them through the Straits of Magellan.

HEARST IS CALLED

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 20.—Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma tonight gave out the following letter, which he said he had wired to Mr. Hearst:

W. R. Hearst, Care New York American, New York Dear Sir—You are stating in speech and press in substance that during the year 1899, when Attorney General Frank S. Monnett of Ohio had several cases pending in the supreme court of that state against the Standard Oil Company, that I sought to influence him to dismiss those suits. I have said, and now repeat, that your statement is absolutely false, and that I never had any relations of any kind of character with the Standard Oil Company. Our conflicting statements prove nothing. You, as a newspaper man, may and should desire a reputation for truthfulness. I, a public official, demand that those who accuse stand forth and make their proof. You know that a suit against you for civil damages or criminal prosecution for libel means long delay and affords your character of journalism a chance to cover your expense before being called upon to settle. I do not want your money. I simply desire to expose you to the public as a false accuser who has distorted public record and manufactured statements for base political purposes.

For the purpose of forever settling this infamous slander which you are circulating in your newspapers and on the stump I now propose that a committee of five or any three of them, composed of the editors of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, the Chicago Journal, the New York World, the Indianapolis News and the St. Louis Republic be selected to hear you and me under oath and all other evidence they may desire as to the truth or falsity of your charges, at the earliest possible moment and render their decision to the public in writing.

Should this committee find your charge sustained I shall withdraw from all connection with the present campaign. Should the verdict be against you there need be no other penalty than the public contempt due every assassin of character.

shot hitting the sheriff, who fell from his horse mortally wounded. His fall discouraged the members of the posse for a few minutes, and while they carried the dying official to the edge of the woods, the Robertses barricaded the door of the cabin.

Roberts and his wife then took up positions at the windows and stood off the besiegers four hours until both were riddled with bullets. Three of the posse were wounded.

FATAL TRAIN WRECK

Texarkana, Tex., Sept. 20.—A north-bound freight train on the Kansas City Southern was wrecked near De Queen, Ark. Six cars rolled down a steep embankment including three tank cars loaded with oil, and were badly smashed. One brakeman and two unidentified men were killed. The tracks were badly torn up causing a delay of all traffic for several hours.

The bodies of one of the men showed nothing to indicate his identity. It was recovered this morning while the body of the other lies somewhere beneath four wrecked box cars. The two men were in a box car.

The wreck is attributed to spreading of the rails the engine and half the train passing safely over the defective track before the wheels of a box car found the opening and went into the ditch, dragging eight other cars, three of which were filled with oil, which burst.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

Two Boys Victims of Collision With Automobile.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 20.—Carlton McConnell, aged 8 years, son of R. V. McConnell, was killed outright and George Stone, aged 12, son of G. B. Stone, president of the chamber of commerce, was injured so badly that it is feared he will die. The boys were coasting on a bicycle and while rounding a corner at a good rate of speed collided with an automobile driven by William Harrah Young Stone is in a hospital and has been unconscious since the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Wheeler returned Sunday from a few days stay in Oklahoma City. Mrs. Wheeler was in attendance at the general meeting of the W. C. T. U.

WOMAN GIVES LIFE

West Plains, Mo., Sept. 20.—Four persons are dead or dying and three are injured as the result of a desperate battle in the Ozarks near Prestonia one mile south of the Missouri State line today between a sheriff's posse and John Roberts, a mountaineer and his wife. The sheriff met death at the hands of Mrs. Roberts, who defended her husband and her home to the last and when, after four hours of fighting the posse stormed and carried the house she was found lying under a window a pump gun clamped in her stiffening fingers blood oozing from fourteen wounds.

The affair is the outcome of a feud between Roberts and his neighbor Kessinger of almost a year's standing. Both lived in the heart of the Ozarks, and like true mountaineers, they shunned the courts of justice to settle their difficulties recognizing the right of might only.

Last night Roberts rode over to Kessinger's cabin and halloed to him to come outside. Kessinger opened the door cautiously and peered out and Roberts fired, the bullet hitting Kessinger squarely in the forehead.

Mrs. Kessinger was in the kitchen when Roberts rode up to the cabin, and hearing some one call her husband stepped into the room just as he threw open the door. She saw the gleam of Robert's rifle barrel as he raised it to his shoulder to fire, and screamed to her husband to close the door. The report of the gun cut short her warning but by the flash was able to distinguish Roberts' features.

Sheriff Mooney organized a posse of six deputies and started for the Roberts cabin early this morning, arriving in sight of the place shortly before noon. As they approached Mrs. Roberts opened fire, her first Standard Oil connection is certainly a deadener to public men. Senator Foraker is the latest victim, but is not likely to be the last.

The national campaign is becoming considerably warmer and until the election there is likely to be plenty of ginger to please the most rabid partisan.

The republicans are considerably befuddled. They are getting hit from so many quarters and in so many places that they cannot meet the attack. It bids fair to end in a stampede for the old party of pilfer, extravagance and favoritism.

The weather for the past week has not been so favorable for cotton and has delayed the opening some, but the rush will soon be here. It is not too late for Ada merchants to take some concerted action toward drawing cotton to this point. Ada already has many advantages, including compress, cotton seed oil mill, numerous buyers and merchants with large stocks of goods which they offer cheap.

If the democrats can avoid any serious political errors, as they have so far been able to do, and keep the harmonious feeling intact, as well as confine the discussion and the issues of the campaign to the record of the republican party and its candidate for president, the election of Bryan appears most probable.

The way the price of hogs is climbing it certainly behooves every farmer to have enough on the farm to insure his own meat supply. There is no telling where the price of bacon and hams will go to.—Denison Herald.

There is no excuse for farmers in this section having to buy meat. Hogs do well here without much care. It is within the power of the farmers to regulate the price of their own meat—by raising it.

PRESS COMMENT.

No man who acquired wealth honestly chides his fellow mortals on account of poverty—it is the thief, the braggart, the financial glutton that emits such mud and slime; and it can come only from the cess pools of corruption—a damnable, hardened heart.—Sallisaw Star-Gazette.

One of the most gratifying features of the change in farm methods is the fact that there are fewer farm mortgages each year and a like number of farmers on a cash basis. The man who has to borrow money to make a crop is playing an uphill game and it is hard work getting ahead.—Shawnee News.

The Maine election showed a democratic increase of 30 per cent, while it showed a republican decrease of six per cent. Straws show which way the national election is going, and the republicans are worried more than they have been for years. It shows that the people will not be fooled all the time.—Caddo Herald.

Wowoka claims to have the stingiest man in Oklahoma, if not in the world, and a premium is offered for his superior in closefistedness. He got married to a home girl to save expenses. They walked down to the oil well for a bridal tour. He bought her a nickel's worth of stick candy for a wedding present, and then suggested that they save the candy for the children.—Konawa Chief Leader.

The most powerful leverage for better roads that has yet been brought to bear is the threat that free rural delivery will be discontinued by the government unless the roads over which the routes run are made passable the year round. This is putting the proposition right squarely up to the very people who are vitally interested and the Herald is going to be very much mistaken if it does not bring results that are worth while.—Denison Herald.

Graceful Dances By Huge Circus Elephants.

Fancy dances of a character that would make even an expert in terpsichore hesitate before attempting them are done daily in the Sells-Floto shows by a huge beast ten feet high and nearly nine feet thick.

The best of it is that they are done with more or less grace and with exact precision in the rhythm of the music. Waltz steps, two steps, schottische, and fancy dances which as yet have been given no name—although one of them might appropriately be called the "barn dance"—are executed with the greatest ease by Alice, the wonderful acrobatic elephant of Carl Zeitz's band of performing elephants.

Alice also does a very lady-like stunt at each performance. She stands on her head. Then, too, she does other stunts while her fellows are cutting up all kinds and varieties of capers.

These wise old beasts, generally with any show, will be here with the Sells-Floto shows and menagerie on Wednesday, September 23.

With a back constantly aching. With distressing urinary disorders. Daily existence is but a struggle. No need to keep it up.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. Ada people endorse this claim: Mrs. Chas. Barrier, living on West 7th and Cherry Sts., Ada, Ok., says: "For a long time my husband was troubled with severe pains through the small of his back. Occasionally he had such sharp twinges that he could hardly refrain from crying out. Bending and straightening would always intensify his suffering. The kidney secretions were also irregular in action. These symptoms led him to believe that his kidneys were disordered and learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, he procured a box at G. M. Ramsey's drug store. He took them according to directions, and the trouble entirely disappeared. He has had no return of kidney complaint since, and consequently thinks very highly of Doan's Kidney Pills." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. How to Get Strong.

P. J. Daly, of 1247 W. Congress St., Chicago, tells of a way to become strong: He says: "My mother, who is old and was very feeble, is deriving so much benefit from Electric Bitters, that I feel it's my duty to tell those who need a tonic and strengthening medicine about it. In my mother's case a marked gain in flesh resulted, insomnia has been overcome, and she is steadily growing stronger." Electric Bitters quickly remedy stomach, liver and kidney complaints.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the disease portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Physically, not one weak heart in a hundred is in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves. This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart disease. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds up strength; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with

Delightfully Entertained.

The following mention of entertainments in Ardmore, wherein Ada lady was the recipient of such complimentary consideration, is copied from the Morning Democrat of that city:

One of the prettiest and most enjoyable receptions of the season was tendered Mrs. Fiske of Ada on Thursday evening by her hostess, Mrs. C. W. Bigart, at her residence on North D. street

Mrs. Bigart's house was fragrant with summer flowers, ferns, palms and cut flowers were elaborately used in putting the reception suite in gala attire.

The receiving line stood in the parlor and the guests were invited to meet Mrs. Fiske, Mrs. Bigart, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. E. M. Galt. Miss Miriam Fiske invited to the punch bowl, where from a rose bedecked bower Miss Helen Galt served this refreshing drink

In the dining room a delightful two-course luncheon was served.

The guests were entertained throughout the evening with progressive forty-two

The entertainment closed with a watermelon feast upon the moonlit lawn and will be remembered by all who attended as one of the most delightful evenings of the entire summer.

The dainty guest book which Mrs. Fiske will carry to Ada as a souvenir of a very happy evening and a delightful visit contains something over fifty names of friends who will welcome her future visits to Ardmore.

In the house party were Mrs. C. L. Herron, who had the guests' register in charge; Mrs. Anderson, Mrs.

Galt, Mrs. Fiske, Mrs. Bigart, and Misses Helen Galt and Miriam Fiske.

Picnic Party.
Mrs. E. M. Galt honored Mrs. Fiske of Ada, the guest of Mrs. C. W. Bigart with a picnic party to the lake on Saturday evening.
A delightful hour passed socially and a genuine picnic dinner was the Ozarks, and like true mountain-ford, Luke Johnson, Foster, T. B. Robinson, Anderson, Steakley, Flaw, Sam Noble and Fiske; Misses Foster, Katie Johnson, Hattie and Freda Brunard, Ethel Crosby, Helen and Lois Goff and Marion Fiske.

George Washington and Stonewall Jackson.

Bob Nestor, deputy under Sheriff Smith, had a warrant for one Stonewall Jackson, charged with stealing a saw from an Indian. Bob searched diligently for his man, who is a negro, and finally ran across a distinguished looking negro who very correctly filled the proper description of the negro in question. Bob arrested him and started to the sheriff's office. The negro half scared to death, began muttering to Bob that he had the wrong man, claiming that his name was George Washington. Bob can't hear very well, and besides he is accustomed to prisoners making excuses, and feeling convinced that he had the correct man on account of the description he possessed, and the added fact that his name was prominent, he would not listen to the prisoner's plea. When Bob arrived at the J. P. office, it was found that he had arrested George Washington instead of Stonewall Jackson, and what made it all the more interesting, George Washington was the fellow who had made the complaint against Stonewall Jackson. They gave Bob the horse laugh, and at last accounts, Bob was still looking for Stonewall Jackson.

The scripture reading was had by Mr. Sims, superintendent of the Sunday school, and the following followed with impressive and appropriate recitations: Boone Jones, Horace B. CHAPMAN

THE SHOE MAN

IS DOWN AND OUT

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 19.—Senator J. B. Foraker of Ohio is politically dead and buried. He has been forsaken by the Ohio State committee, and, seemingly, also by Taft headquarters at Cincinnati. With the means at hand to substantiate the Senator's explanation of the $50,000 sent to him by John Archbold of the Standard Oil company, the State committee has made no effort to do so and permitted Col. J. D. Ellison, who knew about the deal, to go away without asking an explanation at the headquarters. It is doubtful now if Foraker will be permitted to participate in the Ohio campaign at all, despite the fact that Chairman Henry Williams a week ago sent special emissaries with special invitations to the senator and the invitations were accepted. All day Saturday members of the State committee and officials were scouting to find the sentiment of republicans as to Foraker, the general sentiment seeming to be that the exposure of the senator would hurt no one but himself if carefully handled.

At Cincinnati too, Taft headquarters is doing some thinking. It is known that State headquarters called up A. I. Vorys, chief of staff, and informed him of two requests for speeches by Senator Foraker, several days ago. Mr. Vorys replied that Senator Foraker's services were "unavailable."

Senator Foraker tonight sent out following self-explanatory messages: "Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 19.—Hon. John Hays Hammond, President National League of Republican Clubs, Hotel Sinton, Cincinnati, Ohio: Dear Sir—I herewith inclose a self-explanatory letter that I have just sent to Judge Taft. Very truly yours, J. B. FORAKER"

"Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 19.—My Dear Judge: Having read the newspapers that some of our friends, and possibly you, are in doubt as to the propriety of my speaking with you at Music Hall next Tuesday night, I have concluded not to attend the meeting. I take this action, not because I deem the answers I have made to Mr. Hearst's charges insufficient, nor because of any lack of loyalty to your cause, but only because I do not wish to do anything that might injure the cause or embarrass you personally. Very truly yours, J. B. FORAKER. "Hon. William H. Taft, Cincinnati, Ohio."

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 20.—United States Senator Joseph B. Foraker has canceled all of his speaking engagements in the campaign. In a letter to Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock, he asked to be relieved from the appointments which had been arranged for him by the National Speakers' Bureau, and, in a communication to State Chairman Williams of Ohio Republican committee, he made the same request as to the engagements which had been arranged for him in this state.

As to Senator Foraker's senatorial candidacy, the Associated Press is authorized to state the senator's position as follows:

Senator Foraker will leave the selection of his successor to the legislature, but will do all in his power to see that a republican legislature is elected.

In addition to the information Senator Foraker today told his friends that he should, at the proper and convenient opportunity, make a speech in answer to the Hearst charges and in defense of himself, and then would campaign the entire state in behalf of his senatorial candidacy, but under the jurisdiction of no political campaign.

Interesting details of just how Senator Foraker came to withdraw from participation in the forthcoming convention of the National League of Republican Clubs, at which he was to speak with Judge Taft here on Tuesday evening, were disclosed today authoritatively. On the morning of the first publication of the Hearst disclosures (Friday) Senator Dick came to the city from Columbus. After a conference with Senator Foraker where he had an interview with the senator he went to the Taft residence, candidate at which the situation was discussed frankly.

No conclusions were reached but Senator Dick obtained the distinct impression that, in view of the disclosures, the joint discussion of Foraker and Taft was one which required considerations. The arrival of Senator Crane on Saturday morning was noted, and the junior Ohio senator indicated that he should take up the matter with his Massachusetts colleague. After Senators Crane, Foraker and Dick had conferred Saturday morning, the letter which Senator Foraker made public last night, in which he eliminated himself from the meeting, was taken to the Pike street residence by Senator Crane. The suggestion was made after further consideration that the letter personally should be addressed to John Hays Hammond, president of the National League of Republican Clubs, under whose jurisdiction the meeting in question was being arranged, for the reason that as the candidate had no control over the arrangements, further correspondence would be necessary. Then followed another conference between the three senators, during which the question of forwarding the letter to Mr. Hammond was decided, which it was explained, obviated the necessity of a reply from Mr. Taft. This plan, after being presented to Judge Taft at another conference, was adopted.

Throughout the negotiations Judge Taft refused absolutely to comment for publication on the meeting. It has since developed that he had at once taken the position that the joint engagement must be canceled. It has also developed that the candidate received insistent advice to take the initiative in the matter of cancelling the arrangements, and that his reply was emphatically in this language:

"If it would win me every vote in the United States, I can not hit a man when he is down."

FRENZIED NEGRO KILLS TWO

Alexandria, La., Sept. 19.—A mania for killing took possession of Edward Ailes, a negro prisoner, when his death warrant for the murder of his wife was read to him in jail this evening.

He grabbed a caseknife and slew two other prisoners and severely wounded four, all negroes. One of the wounded may die.

During the reading of the warrant Ailes was quiet and smiling, but when the officers left his presence he became furious. The screams of the wounded and dying prisoners attracted almost one thousand persons to the vicinity of the jail.

Meanwhile jail officers played a fire hose on Ailes, the cold water finally bringing him back to reason. The dead are Tip Davis and Garfield Bradley.

$5,000,000 Cut On Muskogee County Valuation.

Muskogee, Sept. 20.—County Clerk W. E. Looper was officially notified by the state board of equalization at Guthrie this afternoon of a decrease made by the state board of equalization in the taxable valuation of property in Muskogee county amounting to approximately $5,000,000. That is to say the total valuation has been decreased from approximately 22,000,000 to $16,893,704. The reduction is general on all the items of taxable property and ranges from 1 to 62 per cent. The action of the state board will necessitate a higher rate of taxation than anticipated, but will not increase the amount to be paid by property holders.

DEVELOPMENT OF CHARACTER THE MOST EXALTED BLESSING.

The advocates of the Christian college regard a perfectly developed moral character as the most exalted blessing within the reach of man. Great as is the value of the acquisition of a liberal intellectual education, it is quite subordinate in its worth to the symmetrical moral character. Hence the teacher in the Christian school proceeds upon the idea that to educate a young man, or a young woman, is to enable such an one to fulfill his or her life plan, and to realize its destiny. In the Christian college there are regarded as being two co-equal elements in true human education—discipline and instruction. In the drill of mind and character they mutually aid and supplement each other. Hence Christianity set out to overload neither; on the other hand, it seeks to give great prominence to both.—Dr. B. F. Riley, on "Denominational Education."

God's blessed permission to us to see him, and to know him, and to trust in him—that is granted us, not for the hours of death or agony alone, but for all life, almost from the very cradle quite to the very grave. And it is a gift no less priceless for its alleviation of all innocent joy. For him who would live a true life it is as necessary in prosperity as in adversity, in peace as in trouble, in youth as in old age. * * Prayer is to the soul what the dew fall even now is, and always, for all of us, upon the fields of life.—Friedrich W. Farrar.

THE BETTER WAY.

(By W. C. Martin)

To wring the hands and beat the breast,

And weep the eyes half blind,
Do not so much deep grief attest
As smallness of the mind.

The noble soul will not display
To men his open sores,
Nor on his fellow mortals lay
The burdens he deplores.

His tears are shed in private, when
He turns aside to pray;
God sanctifies his grief, and then
Wipes all his tears away.
